Narwhals Dominate own Swim Meet

On December 10th and 11th the Northwest Narwhal Swim Club hosted their annual End of Year Meet dominating their own pool and event. 58 Golds were achieved by the team, 35 Silver and 25 Bronze to win First in Team points. NWN had 27 swimmers in the pool with 71 swimmers in total attending. Teams from the Dryden Dolphins, Thunder Bay Thunderbolt and the Sea Lions joining them. 71 Meet Records were broken by swimmers from across the region. It was an exciting and fun filled weekend for all who attended. The Narwhals next swim at the Regional Championships at the Complex in February.
